George Dyer

His show is a wonderful mix of Opera, Broadway, pop, gospel, and country. George was awarded Branson’s Male Vocalist of the Year. Joining him on stage will be members of his talented family and fantastic band.

GENTRI

“The Gentlemen Trio” is comprised of classically trained tenors who pioneered a signature sound described as “Cinematic Pop.” Their dynamic three-part harmonies combine into an incredible force that soars to the ultimate in musical entertainment in a program to include Broadway, contemporary, pop medleys, and a few Christmas classics to celebrate the season.

Gary Puckett & The Union Gap
“Solid Gold Anniversary Tour”

Multi-platinum recording artist Gary Puckett celebrates his stellar career of 50 years with a journey through a generation of music. Gary Puckett & The Union Gap was one of the most successful groups of the 1960’s. Gary sings his chart topping hits Young Girl, Woman Woman, Lady Willpower, This Girl is a Woman Now, Over You, and more classics from this great musical era.

One Night in Memphis

This original concert version of Broadway’s Million Dollar Quartet takes you back to 12-4-1956 when 4 musicians: Elvis, Carl Perkins, Cash, and Jerry Lee Lewis gathered for an impromptu jam session at Sun Records in Memphis. The birth of a new musical era was about to begin. Get ready for a high energy night of rockabilly, country, gospel, and rock ‘n roll. There’ll be a whole lot of shakin’ going on!

Roy Firestone

Roy Firestone’s one-man show will blow you away with his humor, singing, impressions, and inspiring stories. His multi-talents range from respected ESPN sports broadcaster and interviewer extraordinaire (over 5,000 interviews and winner of 7 Emmys & 7 Cable ACEs), monologist, actor, and author of two best sellers. Roy is a “total package” entertainer and presents a one of a kind performance.

The Doo Wop Project

This is “not your grandma’s doo wop!” Featuring stars of Broadway’s Jersey Boys and Motown: The Musical, these charismatic showmen tear it up with musicality and dancing. Together with their 5-piece hot band they move the audience through the evolution of Doo Wop from its early days and its influences on early rock and roll, to creations of “doowopified” contemporary pop songs.
